Hello BSUNAA and Alumni,

First Vice President
Valerie Hough Cromartie

As alumni and members of the Bowie State University National Alumni Association (BSUNAA), we write to you today with tremendous pride in our alma mater and a shared commitment to the continued strength, integrity, and excellence of Bowie State University.

Second Vice President
Darren Swain

We recognize the concerns that many members of our alumni community are feeling regarding recent matters involving our beloved University. Please know that we are listening carefully, paying close attention, and approaching these discussions with the seriousness and thoughtfulness they deserve.

Financial Secretary
Alia Muhammad Shabazz

As your National Alumni Association, our commitment remains unwavering. We are here to support our alumni, our students, and the University we all cherish. Most importantly, we believe that the best path forward is one grounded in transparency, unity, and collective decision-making.

Treasurer
Barbara Butler

To that end, the Board of Directors will convene this coming Monday to engage in thoughtful discussion regarding the current status of these matters and the appropriate next steps. This governing body includes the executive board and the 12 alumni chapter presidents, each elected and selected to represent the voices and perspectives of alumni across our chapters. Together, we will work collaboratively to ensure that all viewpoints are considered as we move forward in the best interest of Bowie State University and its community.

Corresponding Secretary
Veronica Champion

Recording Secretary
Renada Johnson

Our strength has always been rooted in our legacy, our shared values, and our collective voice. We remain committed to advocating constructively, responsibly, and thoughtfully on behalf of our alumni and students while upholding the standards and traditions that define Bowie State University.

Parliamentarian/Sergeant-at-Arms
Marnia Thomas

Historian
Nicholas Myles

We sincerely thank you for your continued engagement, support, patience, and dedication during this time. As discussions continue, we will keep the alumni community informed and updated.

Chaplain
Jerrod Hines

In service and solidarity,
